

MAIN STREET in 1874. It is believed the picture was taken by George Taylor Sr., pioneer - era photographer of Provo. Main Street was the original designation given the present Fifth West when the city was first laid out.

MAIN STREET in 1874. It is believed the picture was taken by George Taylor Sr., pioneer - era photographer of Provo. Main Street was the original designation given the present Fifth West when the city was first laid out.